

Review Dr. Driving

SUD Inc.

Dr. Driving is a free download driving game available for both Android and iOS mobile phones. With a simple and entertaining proposal, you will spend many hours with your phone in search of the first place as the best driver among your friends. You can register with your Facebook user or Google Play Games

Not always the best graphics and the latest generation technology guarantee that you will be in front of the most outstanding game on the market. SUD studies inc. They present a proposal with a discreet graphic section but that will give you more hours of fun than you expect. Prepare your mobile, grab the steering wheel and put on your seat belt to experience one of the best free apps available for your mobile.

Dr. Driving is free to download on Android and iOS. The objective of the installment that came out in 2013 is to get to a certain place in a car as if it were in real life. Among the controls you will have a steering wheel, pedal, brake and horn at your disposal. You can have different cars but it is necessary to pay with some coins that you will win in the game as you progress. There are vehicles that you will get as soon as you start the game and you also have the chance to acquire a wide variety more through purchases.

Among the Dr. Driving game modes we find a wide variety of alternatives to enjoy this experience as drivers from the comfort of our phone or tablet. One of them is Truck Mode which is to take control of a truck. If, on the other hand, you use a car, you must be very careful as it is easily destroyed and it is very costly to fix it. The most traditional mode of the game is Speed.

Among the advantages of Dr. Driving we find a simple, agile and simple interface that recreates the dashboard of a car. You will have the option of playing with a first-person camera, which gives you a great sense of reality and that you are actually driving or, on the contrary, you can choose a third-person view, further away, which establishes an effect more traditional starting. If you are an expert do not hesitate to choose the first person view. On the right side of the screen you can find the icons to control the car. You will be able to see the letter D that is to go straight ahead, the N that means neutral since it does nothing, the R to go back and P that means "Parking" that is to say still.

Many of those who decide to play Dr. Driving are fans of cars. And fortunately for them, the product of SUD inc. It offers you several options in the main menu to improve your car. They will be able to customize it however they like. The application is a driving simulator. When registering we can connect our Facebook profile and in this way share the statistics that we make in each game and see who of our friends is the best driver. It is completely free to purchase from the Google Play Store and is a lightweight game with low-quality graphics that makes it faster on all devices. We can also connect our Google profile, which makes registration easier.

The delivery gives us the possibility of getting a great variety of free cars in Dr. Driving and you also have to buy them. You can change the mission to your liking by clicking the start button of the game.

To start you will get a traditional car and although it lacks a bit of spirit on the stage, the graphic quality is very acceptable. Every time we are going to change the colors of the cars, a sound is heard as if you were moving the spray paint can.

In the game interface we have several options such as the first one, which is to register with your Google Play Games account. This will allow you to see your scores on this social network and those of your friends. The settings part is also available where you can modify the controls, sound and other aspects relevant to the game.

One of the funniest experiences you can have if you are a follower of cars, vehicles and driving. Downloading Dr.

Driving for free is an alternative that you cannot miss if you want a light game that will give you many hours of fun. You will seek to be the best driver among all your friends.
