

Review Gacha Life

Lunime

Gacha Life offers you the opportunity to create your own anime character, which you can customize as many times as you want and change clothes and accessories to always be in manga fashion, in addition, it has a photographic studio in which to edit photos and videos of your avatar

If you like anime, manga and applications to make short videos, in Gacha Life you will find your favorite site. With it you can create your own Japanese comic characters and customize them however you want to create your animated avatar. Download the app for free to enjoy this experience, you will find it available for Android and iOS.

Gacha Life was created by Lunime in 2018 and since then it has become an essential for fans of this genre, getting its users to grow every day and accumulate more than 10 million downloads only in the Google Play Store. The word Gacha comes to refer to the surprise dolls that you find inside balls, they are typical in Japan and the grace is to get the entire collection.

It is a complete experience, it has a very wide catalog of figures with which you can start playing. This is the first step you will have to do, choose one among all and that best suits you, from here start customizing it as you want. You will be able to choose each of its details, from the color of the hair, retouching the shape of the face, the eyes, the expression, to the way in which it is going to move through this virtual world and the energy that it will transmit to the rest of members of this community. You can change this as many times as you want, choosing the most fashionable clothes and accessories, creating up to 20 different characters.

Once you have created it, you can start making new friends, interact with others from this Gacha universe and create bonds of friendship. You will also have at your disposal a photographic studio where you can carry out your own photo and video sessions that you will later share with the rest of the users, including changes of costumes and hairstyles. It has a great quality of characters and settings, making it a special app that cannot be compared to any other.

One of the advantages of Gacha Life is that it gives its users the creative freedom to do whatever they want with their avatars and with the possibility of doing it offline, offering unparalleled fun. Are you ready to start this adventure? Create your anime avatar and dare to explore this virtual universe, in addition to meeting many new people you will also have the possibility to connect with them by chatting privately with the NPCs and thus learn much more about them.

Apart from its visual part, it also has a series of mini-games with which you will have hours of fun. There are eight different ones, such as Duck & Dodge or Phantom's Remix. Collect Gacha gems that will make you get gifts that you will add to your collection, there are more than 100, so don't think twice and start exploring around to get them all.

Download Gacha Life and enter its community, it has its own user groups, who join according to their interests. Within each of them you will find several sections controlled by a series of users called Staff, they are in charge of ensuring that everything goes well within this small, or large, society. Inside they can participate in public chats, most of them are role-playing and in which there will be other people with your same interests. If any user does not comply with the rules set by the rest, you will only have to talk to one of these moderators and they will take care of solving the problem that occurs.

If you feel a bit lost, you can visit their blogs, where you will have articles from other members giving tips to improve your outfits or videos on how to make real Gacha avatars. This community stands out for being one of the best in creating videos and photos, that's why they have so many entries for you to keep improving and become one of their stars.

This has resulted in the creation of the Gachatubers, a community of youtubers that have more than nine million views and that tell the adventures of the characters they have created in the game. Most of them tell comic situations, but there are also stories that represent problems with depth, interspersing suspense with humor, like great film directors. Among the most famous channels is Kira, with more than 128,000 subscribers and adding 8 million views.
